

CHILDREN OF TRANSITION, CHILDREN OF WAR

THE 'GENERATION OF TRANSFORMATION' FROM A EUROPEAN PERSPECTIVE

#DFT2016 – Deutschlandforschertagung 2016

3–5 November 2016, University of Vienna

CHILDREN OF TRANSITION, CHILDREN OF WAR

THE 'GENERATION OF TRANSFORMATION' FROM A EUROPEAN PERSPECTIVE

The conference is focused on today's young adults who, as children, experienced the fall of Soviet-dominated societies and the related transformations on the Eastern side of the 'Iron Curtain'. How does the generation of the former children of the political revolutions in Eastern and Southeastern Europe as well as the German 'Wendekinder' (in the East, but also in the West) deal with collective memories, current socio-economic and political challenges such as migration, integration, or various nationalisms? What are their attitudes and expectations towards Europe and the European Union? Which insights, lessons learned and recommendations can therefrom be obtained for civic education in Europe?

Information & Registration:

Regina Außerwöger

Franz Vranitzky Chair for European Studies, University of Vienna

+43-1-4277-49347

regina.ausserwoeger@univie.ac.at franzvranitzkychair.univie.ac.at

www.bpb.de/dft

THURSDAY, 3 NOVEMBER

Small Ceremonial Chamber (Kleiner Festsaal), Main Building of the University of Vienna, Universitätsstraße 1, 1010 Vienna; Stairs open access: right-hand entrance, elevator 1st floor

17:30–18:30

Registration and reception

18:30–19:00

Welcome addresses

Ulrike Felt

(Dean of the Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Vienna)

Christoph Augustynowicz

(Vice Dean of the Historical Cultural Faculty, University of Vienna)

Gerhard Benetka

(Dean of the Faculty of Psychology, Sigmund Freud Private University, Vienna)

Gabriele Matzner-Holzer

(Ambassador, Board Member of the Institute for the Danube Region and Central Europe (IDM), Vienna)

Caroline Hornstein Tomić

(Head of the Operative Department, Federal Agency for Civic Education (bpb), Bonn)

Franz Vranitzky

(Former Chancellor of the Federal Republic of Austria)

19:00–19:30

Keynote Speech

Wolfgang Petritsch

(Ambassador, President of the Austrian Marshall Plan Foundation, Vienna)

19:30–20:00

Introduction

Rainer Gries

(Franz Vranitzky Chair for European Studies, University of Vienna)

20:00–21:00

Get together

FRIDAY, 4 NOVEMBER

Sky Lounge

University of Vienna, Oskar-Morgenstern-Platz 1, 1090 Vienna

9:00–11:00

PANEL 1: MEMORY AND COLLECTIVE AMNESIA

Chaired by Oliver Rathkolb
(Head of the Department of Contemporary History, University of Vienna)

Divided Memories – Divided Youth: How Does War Remembrance Affect Ethnic Identities and Political Attitudes Among Youths in Kosovo?

Bekim Baliqi
(Department of Political Science, University of Prishtina, Kosovo)

‘USSR 2.0’ or a ‘Normal European Country’? Socio-Political Visions of Russia’s ‘Children of Transition’ Exemplified by Two Russian Youth – Organizations in Perm/Urals

Anke Giesen
(Otto von Guericke University Magdeburg, Germany)

Remembering While Forgetting: How Young Czechs Grow Into Collective

Tomáš Karger & Jan Kalenda
(Faculty of Humanities, Tomáš Bat'a University in Zlín, Czech Republic Memory)

The Worth of East German Identity. On the Intersection of Meaning, Worth and Affect, and its Potential for Analyzing the East

Sandra Matthäus
(Department of Social Sciences, Humboldt-
University Berlin, Department of the History of Medicine and Science Studies, Lübeck University)

11:00–11:30

Coffee break

11:30–13:00

POSTER SESSION

Chaired by Silvia Nadjivan
(Institute for the Danube Region and Central Europe (IDM), Vienna)

The Young Generation and the Temptation of Extremism. The 2000 Elections in Romania

Andreea Elena Cârstea
(Civic Academy Foundation – The International
Center for Studies into Communism, Bucharest, Romania)

Youth Rocks? Youth Leisure and Engagement in Transcending and Reinforcing Urban Ethno-National Divides in Former Yugoslavia

Vanni D'Alessio & Bert Preiss
(Department of History, University of Rijeka, Croatia; University of Naples / Department of Political Science, University of Vienna, Austria)

Between Germanness and Othering – The Process of ‘Ossifizierung’

Kathleen Heft
(Department of Cultural History and Theory, Humboldt University Berlin, Germany)

Children of 1992–1995 War in Bosnia- Herzegovina: One Generation, Several Subgroups and Different Memories

Alma Jefić
(Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences Psychology
Program, International University of Sarajevo,
Bosnia and Herzegovina)

The Use of Social Media by Youth in Contemporary Albania and its Impact on Their Perceptions of the World

Islam Jusufi
(Department of Political Science and International Relations, Epoka University, Tirana, Albania)

FRIDAY, 4 NOVEMBER

Sky Lounge

University of Vienna, Oskar-Morgenstern-Platz 1, 1090 Vienna

Importance of the Family and Tradition for Second Generation of Migrants from Bosnia and Herzegovina in Constructing of Migrant Networks

Bojana Miodragović

(Senior Teaching Assistant Department of Sociology, Faculty of Political Sciences, University of Banja Luka, Bosnia and Herzegovina)

Growing Up During the 'Transition' in Serbia – Between Precarity and Creativity

Jovana Papović

(School for Advanced Studies in the Social Sciences, EHESS, Paris, France)

Polish and Czech Students: Financial Literacy and Political Opinions Related to the Economic Issues

Małgorzata Pawlak

(Collegium of Socio-Economics, Warsaw School of Economics)

Breaking the Silence: Results from Inter-Generation Talks on Transition in Germany, Russia and Ukraine

Olena Pravylo, Amanda Groschke, Polina

Philippova & Christine Wetzel

(Congress of Cultural Activists Kiev, Ukraine/
Author, Berlin/Sakharov Center Moscow, Russian Federation/German Russian Exchange)

Regimes of Forgetting and Homogenization of Memory: From Erasure of Socialist Symbols Towards Collective Amnesia and Urbicide of the Spacial – Historical Landscape of the City of Skopje

Natasha Sardzoska

(Eberhard Karls University Tübingen, Germany, independent researcher, Skopje, Macedonia)

The Young Roma Females in the Czech Republic: Between (Post)Socialist Surveillance and Fast-Track Integration

Victoria Shmidt

(Institute for Research of Inclusive Education, Faculty of Education, Masaryk University, Czech Republic)

Cultural Memory and Childhood: Do Young Adults From Former Yugoslav Republics Still Watch Yugoslav TV Programs?

Nataša Simeunović Bajić

(Faculty of Culture and Media, John Naisbitt University, Belgrade, Serbia)

13:00–14:00

Lunch break and Poster viewing

FRIDAY, 4 NOVEMBER

Sky Lounge

University of Vienna, Oskar-Morgenstern-Platz 1, 1090 Vienna

14:00–16:00

PANEL 2: FROM MIGRATION TO INTEGRATION

Chaired by Pavel Kolář

(Department of History and Civilization, European University Institute (EUI), Florence, Italy)

Macedonia's Lost Generation Between Transitional Crises and New Perspectives

Kire Babanoski

(Faculty of Security Sciences, MIT University – Skopje, Macedonia)

Sounding Repercussions: Reflections on Post-1989 and Post-Migration

Katharina Blumberg-Stankiewicz & Elisabeth Kirndörfer

(European University Viadrina, Frankfurt, Germany)

The Good, the Bad and the Eastern European – Refugees and the Communist Past

Iva Koprалеva, Rafaela Tripalo & Louisa Slavkova
(Sofia Platform, Bulgaria / Stiftung Wissen am Werk, Croatia / European Council on Foreign Relations)

In 1992 – Bosnian War Refugees, Today – Modern Migrants

Kristina Malbašić

(Independent researcher, Zagreb)

16:00–16:30

Coffee break

16:30–18:30

PANEL 3: SOCIAL PRACTICES AND POLITICAL PARTICIPATION

Chaired by Sanja Milutinović Bojanić

(Center for Advanced Studies – South Eastern Europe, University of Rijeka, Croatia)

Trapped into Inherited Norms: Victimization of Children and Young Adults Because of Vitalization of Blood Feud in Albanian Post-Socialist Society

Merita Meçë

(Clemson University, South Carolina, USA)

Young Women and (In)Security of Daily Life in the Divided City of Mitrovica, Kosovska Mitrovica

Ivana Milovanović

(Faculty of Sport and Physical Education, University of Novi Sad, Serbia)

Generation on the Doorstep? How to Define an Age Group Shaped by the Changes?

Raili Nugin

(Estonian Institute of Humanities, Centre for Contemporary Culture, Tallinn University, Estonia)

Generation of Consensus or of Protest?

Ukraine's Children of Transition.

The Orange Revolution and Beyond

Oleskandr Svyetlov

('Memorial' / Public Institute of Historical Memory / Museum of Soviet Occupation, Kyiv, Ukraine)

SATURDAY, 5 NOVEMBER

Sky Lounge

University of Vienna, Oskar-Morgenstern-Platz 1, 1090 Vienna

9:00–10:00

Revisions of Transitions

Chaired by Johannes Piepenbrink
(Federal Agency for Civic Education (bpb), Bonn)

10:00–12:00

PANEL 4: BETWEEN EURO- PEANNESS AND NATIONALISMS

Chaired by Hans-Georg Golz
(Federal Agency for Civic Education (bpb), Bonn)

The Children in the Balkans Between Democracy and Nationalism

Bedrudin Brljavac
(Department of Political Science, University of Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina)

When I think of Europe ... Wendekinder as a Diverse Generation of Transformation

Daniel Kubiak & Christian Nestler
(Department of Social Sciences, Humboldt
University Berlin, Germany / Department of Political and Public Administrative Sciences,
University of Rostock, Germany)

Civilizing the Transitional Generation: The Politics of Civic Education in Post- Communist Romania

Mihai Stelian Rusu
(Department of Journalism, Public Relations,
Sociology and Psychology, Lucian Blaga
University of Sibiu, Romania)

Defining a Generation, Redefining the Nation: Coming of Age in Post-War Bosnia-Herzegovina

Mary Kate Schneider
(Department of Political Science, Loyola
University Maryland, Baltimore, USA)

12:00–12:30

Coffee break & Fingerfood

12:30–14:00

CONCLUSION: LESSONS LEARNED AND PROSPECTS FOR CIVIC EDUCATION IN EUROPE

Chaired by Caroline Hornstein Tomić
(Head of the Operative Department, Federal Agency for Civic Education (bpb), Bonn)

Hans-Georg Golz
(Federal Agency for Civic Education (bpb), Bonn)

Sanja Milutinović Bojanić
(Center for Advanced Studies – South Eastern Europe, University of Rijeka, Croatia)

Oliver Rathkolb
(Head of the Department of Contemporary History, University of Vienna)

Pavel Kolář
(Department of History and Civilization, European University Institute (EUI), Florence, Italy)

Institut
für den Donauraum
und Mitteleuropa

UNIVERSITY OF VIENNA • Franz Vranitzky Chair for European Studies
43-1-4277-49347 • regina.ausserwoeger@univie.ac.at • franzvranitzkychair.univie.ac.at

Federal Agency for Civic Education (Bundeszentrale für politische Bildung/bpb)
www.bpb.de/dft