

Hans Stark

Teilnehmer der Europäischen Konferenz
der Bundeszentrale für politische Bildung
"NECE – Networking European Citizenship Education"
23. bis 26. Juli 2004
Santiago de Compostela, Spanien

Curriculum Vitae

General Secretary of the Study Committee for Franco-German Relations (Cerfa) at the French Institute of International Relations (Ifri)

Born : November 1st 1961 in Krefeld (Germany)

Nationality : German

Marital status : Married, Four children

Professionnel address :

Institut français des relations internationales (Ifri)

27, rue de la Procession

75740 Paris Cedex 15

France

Tel : 01 40 61 60 47

stark.cerfa@ifri.org

Languages : German (mother tongue), French, English

Educational Background

1987 : Graduate of the Institut d'études politiques (IEP) of Paris (Major : International Relations).

1990 : MA in Soviet and East European studies from the Institut d'études
politiques of Paris, Student Laureate Award

2001 : PhD in Political Science from the University of Paris I –Sorbonne, Dissertation entitled « European integration policies in the Federal Republic of Germany under the government of Helmut Kohl », Honor degree of distinction.

Professional Activities and Fields of expertise

1989 - 1991 : Research Fellow at the French Institute of International Relations (Ifri)
Field of expertise : Soviet and East European studies

Since 1991 : General Secretary of the Study Committee for Franco-German Relations (Cerfa) at the French Institute of International Relations (Ifri).
Field of expertise : Franco-German relations; Contemporary Germany
(internal policy, foreign policy), European integration

Since 2002 : Lecturer at the Institut d'études politiques in Paris

2003 : Official degree of the National Council of Universities in France, eligibility for a position as professor or lecturer in the field of German languages and literature.

Since 2004 : Professor at the Franco-German undergraduate programme of the Institut d'études politiques located in Nancy